

WIFE RIPS HER JEWELS FROM RIVAL'S NECK

Seizes Lavalliere Which She Says Her Husband Gave to Her First.

ALSO SNATCHES WATCH

Angry Spouse Breaks Up Style Show to Get Gems From Mannequin.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—It's one thing for a man to transfer his affections from his wife to a younger and more alluring woman—

But when he transfers his jewels from his wife to another woman, it's quite another question! For the affections which have been transferred may be won back by the wife, but jewels—ah! well, every woman knows what happens to jewels in such a set of circumstances.

An Indian Giver.

This was the way Mrs. Melville Reeves reasoned when she learned that her spouse had presented $7,500 worth of gems to Edna De Werth, a pretty mannequin in the Chicago style show. The jewels had been Mrs. Reeves' gift to his wife, in a moment of husbandly devotion, and when she saw them sparkling on the avelite model, she hurried to court and obtained a writ of replevin for the stones, which were, to wit:

One three-karat diamond ring, $2,000; one diamond-studded wrist watch, $2,000; one diamond-studded platinum bracelet, $1,500; one diamond and sapphire lavalliere, $2,000.

Waits in Peacock Alley.

With a bailiff, Mrs. Reeves hurried to the Congress Hotel, where Miss De Werth was appearing as a mannequin in the style show. The model was at dinner, she was told. Mrs. Reeves waited in Peacock Alley. Presently Miss De Werth came tripping back from her dinner engagement wearing the Reeves lavalliere. Encircling her slender wrist was Mrs. Reeves' watch. Glistening from a dainty finger was Mrs. Reeves' cherished three-karat ring.

Primitive Women.

Mrs. Reeves arose and presented her writ.

"That means nothing in my young life," the beauty is quoted as having said.

"Your mistake, my dear," retorted Mrs. Reeves, making a dive for the lavalliere.

The model swayed gracefully into a sidestep. There were screams and then a clench. The women went to the floor in a deadlock. Dinner guests rushed from the Pompeian room. Over the floor rolled the two young women. Two pairs of silken ankles intertwined. Two pairs of hands reached out for locks of hair in laurels of victory. Mrs. Reeves finally succeeded in obtaining the lavalliere and wrist watch.

At the climax of the fight, when the ring-side attendance was growing swiftly, hotel employees fought their way through the crowd and ended the bout. The two batters were assisted to their feet. A great light dawned on Miss De Werth when she was introduced to the hitherto unobserved bailiff and she surrendered the rest of the jewels.

Angry at Melville.

Miss De Werth at the home of her mother was chiefly incensed at Melville Reeves. She denied Mrs. Reeves had won the fight.

"He paid Bab's Barbours another model, $50 for an introduction to me while I was appearing at the Marjorie Garden two years ago," said the comely Edna. "I didn't like him, but he forced his attentions upon me. He told me he was president of the Mohawk Auto Tire Company and a Los Angeles movie magnate, and I believed him.

From "Dear Jimmie."

"I have refused time and time again to go out with him. When my refusal would be most firm he would send me a piece of jewelry."

The girl displayed 300 letters which she said were from Reeves. They were addressed to "Queensie" and signed her Jimmie. Miss De Werth said Reeves had offered her the home in Rogers Park in which he lives.

When she refused the deed, she said, he gave her two years' rent receipts at the rate of $2,200 a year.

The model also said Reeves had given her a seven-passenger Cadillac car, which she recently turned over to Mrs. Reeves.

"The jewelry was bought for me, and I can prove that," she said.

Boy Accidentally Killed While Squirrel Hunting

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Sept. 30.—

John Starliper, aged sixteen years, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Starliper, of Hancock, was accidentally killed by his own gun while hunting squirrels in a wood near Hancock. Young Starliper fell while stepping over a log and the gun was discharged, the load of shot entering his abdomen below the heart, making an ugly wound from which he bled to death in a few minutes.

Charles E. Seneal, a stepbrother of Starliper, heard the report of the gun and, calling to Starliper and not getting an answer, went to the spot and found the latter lying on the ground. Starliper was still conscious and told how the accident happened.

Five Children Have Appendicitis

Entire Family is Stricken With Appendicitis

James Mullen, a Minnesota farmer, according to reports published in a local newspaper, has had five members of his family operated upon for appendicitis within the past year. His wife's father died of appendicitis.

A Treacherous Disease. Appendicitis attacks at any moment, even persons seemingly in good health. Usually, however, it is preceded by so-called stomach trouble, constipation or similar disturbances. Often when there is a warning feeling of uneasiness in the abdomen, appendicitis can be guarded against in exactly the same manner in which one guards against the spread of throat infection, because that is just what appendicitis is—an infection in the intestines spreading to the appendix. When one has stomach trouble, one can often prevent further trouble and the development of influenza or grippe by using an antiseptic wash or gargle to fight the germs and a laxative to carry off the poisons from the body. Just exactly the same procedure is necessary to fight the intestinal germs and guard against appendicitis. But instead of an antiseptic wash for the throat, an ANTISEPTIC ANTISEPTIC is necessary.

Intestinal Antiseptic. There is now offered to the public a preparation having the DOUBLE action of an intestinal antiseptic and a COMPLETE system cleanser. This preparation, known as ADLERKA, acts as follows: It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here. It is the most complete system cleanser ever offered to the public, acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removing foul matter which poisons the system for months and which nothing else can dislodge. It brings out all germs, thus immediately relieving pressure on the heart. It is astonishing the great amount of poisonous matter Adlerka draws from the alimentary canal, matter you never thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much more foul matter it brings out which was poisoning you. In slight disorders, such as occasional constipation, sour stomach, gas on the stomach and sick headache, one remedy, Adlerka ALWAYS brings relief. A longer treatment, however, is necessary in cases of obstinate constipation and long-standing stomach trouble, preferably under direction of your physician.

Reports From Physicians.

"I congratulate you on the good effect I had from Adlerka since I prescribed it." (Signed) Dr. L. Langlois. "I have found nothing in my 50 years' practice to equal Adlerka." (Signed) Dr. James Weaver. "I use Adlerka in all bowel cases. Some require only one dose." (Signed) Dr. P. M. Prettyman.

After taking Adlerka feel better than for 20 years. Haven't language to express the AWFUL IMPURITIES eliminated from my system." (Signed) J. E. Puckett. Adlerka is a constant surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines, on account of its rapid, pleasant and COMPLETE action. It is sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sold in Washington by Peoples Drug Stores and other leading druggists.

STEAM HEAT Without Coal

In HOMES, OFFICES, STORES, SCHOOLS, Etc.

GASTEAM Heating is steam heating—minus boiler, coal, ashes, piping and the caretaker. Nothing is needed but the radiators—each one being a complete steam-heating plant in miniature.

GASTEAM heating retains all the advantages of the best steam systems, with the economy, reliability and cleanliness of gas fuel.

An inclosed gas burner, operating on the Bunsen principle (which means a sootless flame) and automatically regulated, heats the water. It burns only when and where needed, unlike systems that require a full fire to heat even a single room.
